

reality of crime and prison life). I am currently the Chairman of the Life and Beyond group geared towards preparing guys for the parole process and being released. As Chairman of Life and Beyond I have also organized two charity Fund-raisers; one for the Corcoran High School Mecha Club and the other for Marley's Mutt's dog program. I am also working towards expanding the Youth Offender Parole Mentorship program sponsored by the Anti-Recidivism Coalition and I am working with a group of guys and one of the teachers here to create a debate club. While doing all of this I have also remained disciplinary free my entire time in prison.

It is also important to include any kind of support I will receive upon coming home. This support can include but not limited to: spiritual, mentor, guidance, emotional, housing, financial assistance, transportation, employment, etc.

Conclude your letter with reasons commutation should be granted:

- My innocence.
- Juvenile sentenced to life without the possibility of parole.
- Good character
- Community involvement
- Attitude and achievements
